AMERICA.

NEWPORT, Rhode Island, July 20.

BY perusing the Spanish Letters found on board the Prize brought in here by Capt. Griffiths, we find an Account, that an Indian of the Province of Tarma, having assembled together 6000 of his Countrymen, had wrote to the Vice Roy at Lima, which was 60 Leagues distant, requiring, that he and his Spaniards should depart out of his Lands, declaring that he was the lawful Inca or King of all that Country, and if his Request was not complied with, that he would drive them away himself. The Vice Roy disregarding these Threats, the Indians began Hostilities by taking a Fort of 4 Pieces of Cannon on the Frontiers, with a Garrison of 60 Spaniards, which were either kill'd in a Sally or Starv'd to Death by the Besiegers. The Vice-Roy having Intelligence of it, sent 200 Men to the Frontiers, with strict Orders not to fight the Indians without treble Advantage. The Inhabitants of Lima were under great Concern about this Affair. The same Letters mention, that an Earthquake had destroy'd the City of Santa Fee.

New York, July 23.

Last Friday Evening arrived here Capt. Long in a Brigt. from Belfast and Isle Mayo, who says, he was chas'd several Days after he came out of Belfast, and had an Engagement for 4 Glasses with a Privateer, but got clear; that on the 16th of May he arrived at Isle Mayo, where lay 2 large Ships with English Colours flying, whom he took to be Merchantmen, and therefore came to an Anchor without any Suspicion; and soon after was hal'd in English, asking him whence he came? he answered from Belfast; the same Person then desired him to come on board and sup with him; which Capt. Long declin'd at first, but being prest, he accordingly went; and on going over the sides, he discovered it to be an Enemy's Vessel, so was made Prisoner and his Brigt. taken; this Ship proving to be a Spanish Privateer from Cadiz, the other her Prize, a Ship from Glasgow: They had a few Days before taken a Brigt. and a Snow belonging to Salem, which they plundered and burnt: The 24th of May they sail'd with the 3 Vessels to St Jago, and lying there the Brigt's Cable parted, and she went out to Sea, but the Spaniards sent a Boat with 12 Englishmen and an Irish Lieutenant, to bring her in again: When they got on board, the Englishmen agreed to rise, which they accordingly did, and master'd the Dons, who were but six in Number, driving 'em down into the Hold; soon after going aloft to loose their Sails, and forgetting that there was a Way from between Decks into the Cabbin, where the small Arms lay, the Spaniards got to the Arms, and shot down seven of the poor Fellows like so many Pigeons. Two Days after Commodore Barnet with his Squadron came into St Jago, who sent his Boat to know who the Dons were, and being inform'd by Capt. Long, they were immediately secur'd: The Commodore very generously restored Capt. Long his Brigt. and the Glasgow Man his Ship; about 40 English, Irish, and Dutch, which were in the Privateer, he took on board the Fleet, but the Spaniards he put on shore at St Jago. The 3d of June, the Fleet sail'd from St Jago, and steer'd S. by E. Capt. Long sail'd a few Hours with them, and then made the best of his Way hither.

Last Week six Vessels arrived here from Jamaica, by whom we learn, that Sir Chaloner Ogle was seen with 12 Men of War off Leogane, which Place it was supposed he design'd to attack, as there were many Merchantmen in the Harbour and it is said a great deal of Riches in the Town.

We have also an Account, that two fine Bermuda Sloops belonging to this Place, and bound hither from Jamaica commanded by Capts. Pennifone and Hubbard, were taken in a Calm by a Spanish Privateer, as was also a Snow belonging to Philadelphia, which was soon after re taken by one of our Men of War.

Some Time ago we had an Account, that Capt. B. Morgan in a Sloop belonging to this Place, from Anguilla bound hither, was taken by the Spaniards, since which we are told that the English rose on the Spaniards, and kill'd them every one except a Negro, who was much wounded; after which they bore away for Jamaica, but elevated with Success, and thinking all Danger past, and the Weather calm, for their Consolation, they all got drunk; which the Negro perceiving, found means to cut every Man's Throat on board, and run the Sloop on Shore.

Philadelphia, July 23. By Capt. Gill who arrived here in about 20 Days from Antigua, we have the following List of French Prizes brought in there, which have been condemned, and were then in English Harbour, viz.

L'Amiable, Olivier, bound from Guinea to Leogane, with 400 Negroes, 163 Oz. of Gold, 116 Teeth, and some dry Goods; taken by the Warwick, Severn, and Lancaster.

La Dauphin, Gazett, from Havre de Grace to Guardeloupe, with Cordage, Beef, Flour and other Provisions; by the Superb, and Launceston.

La St. Martin, D'Hayandier, from Bourdeaux to Martinico, with Cordage, Beef, Flour, Wine, Brandy, &c. by the Superb.

La Marquis D'Antin, La Vigne, from Bourdeaux to Martinico, with Cordage, Beef, Flour, Wine, Brandy, &c. by the Superb, and Launceston.

La Fortune, Emengon, from Cayenne to Martinico and Marseilles, with Cocoa, Roqua, and Coffee, by the Warwick, Severn, and Launceston.

La Garonne, Bartan, from Bourdeaux to Leogane, with Provisions, Wine, and dry Goods, by the Lime.

L'Aimable Julie, Dubourdre, from Martinico to Bourdeaux, with Sugar, Coffee, and Tobacco, by the Superb, and Launceston.

La Bienaimée, Gaze, from Marseilles to Martinico, with Wine, Provisions, and dry Goods, by the Severn and Warwick.

La Neptune, Granier, from Marseilles to Martinico, with Wine, Oyl, Brandy, and Soap, &c. by the Warwick, Severn, and Launceston.

La Francois de Cherbourg, Dalmer, from Bourdeaux to Martinico, with Wine, Beef, Flour, Candles, Cordage, Herrings and Cod, by the Superb, and Launceston.

La Princesse D'Antigo, Barbe, from Martinico to Rochelle, with Sugar and Coffee, by the Severn, and Launceston.

L'Union, Brigantine, Pierre Charleston, from Rochelle to Canada, with Rum, Sugar, Molasses, Cotton, and Coffee, by the Severn, and Launceston.

La Juriste, Sloop. Jean D'Eausal, from Martinico to Cape Francois, with Wine, Beef, Mutton, and Pork, by the Lime.

La Croissant, Jean Granbut, from Martinico to Bourdeaux, with Sugar and Coffee, by the Lime

La Patriarch Abraham, from Guinea to Martinico, with 630 Negroes, by the Severn.

A Sloop, from Martinico to Cape Breton, with 400 Hogsheads of Rum and Molasses, by the Canso Bomb.

Philadelphia, July 26. Last Week a Vessel arrived here from Antigua, after a Passage of 16 Days to our Capes, with Advice, that a Sloop, Tender to Commodore Barnet, arrived there from St. Jago in the Isle of May, being discharged on Account of her dull Sailing, and ordered fered Home, the Master of which said, that the Commodore took a French Ship near the Harbour of St Jago, which was going to the East Indies with the Declaration of War against England, and made a Tender of her in the Sloop's Stead. The Commodore had three 60 and two 40 or 50 Gun Ships with him, and purposed to proceed to the East Indies with all possible Expedition from St. Jago when the Tender came from thence. The Tender not being well ballasted, and having lost her Top mast, came to Antigua, being unwilling to proceed to England 'till she was refitted, and was ready to sail with an Express from that Island, with a Man of War to convoy her clear of the Islands, when the above Vessels came away.

LONDON, April 28.

YESTERDAY came Advice, That His Majesty's Ships the Phœnix and Gibraltar had taken in their Cruize off Brest, a French Ship called the Neptune, of 36 Carriage and Swivel Guns, laden with Linnen and other rich Goods, bound from Morlaix to Cadiz, after some Resistance, in which the French Captain and three Men were kill'd and 14 wounded: And that the said Ship was carried to Spithead by the Phœnix.

It is also said, that the said Ship had on board 20 Pieces of Brass Ordnance; and that she is valued at 40,000 l. Sterling.

There are 27 Privateers preparing to put to Sea, in order to cruize on the French, and most of them Ships of considerable Force.

The Austrian Hussars having taken the Equipages belonging to the Duke de Modena, in the late Retreat of the Spanish Army, (from Italy into the Kingdom of Naples) His Highness Prince Lobkowitz immediately sent them back to his Serene Highness, with a Compliment, importing, that he was glad of any Opportunity of testifying his Respect for his Person.

The Dutch Ambassador that goes to Versailles, does it in Virtue of the Treaty made with us in 1678, by which, if either Power is attacked, the other is to send an Ambassador to the Power that declares War, and in Case the Disputes cannot be compromited, then upon two Months Notice, the negociating Power is to declare War against the common Enemy.

We hear that some Men of War will sail in a few Days to the West-Indies, in order to reinforce the Squadron now at Jamaica.

Several Foreign News Papers inform us that the Hessian Troops having refused to act in the Low Countries, have been dismissed from British Pay.

The Elector of Mentz has not only put his Capital in a good Posture of Defence, but is also raising Men throughout all his Dominions; with what View, Time only can shew.

There are private Letters from Hamburgh, from good Hands, which say, that the French are more intent than ever on exciting a new War in the North, and have made as great Remittances to Sweden, as in the Days of Cardinal de Fleury. 'Tis said a Treaty of Subsidy is sign'd with that Court, by which the Swedes are to furnish the French with 12,000 Men.

Dover, April 28. This Morning the Eagle Privateer brought into the Pier, a French Ship called the Ufrow Catherine, Hans Bous, laden with Wines from the Canaries: She was taken off Calais, and at first pretended to be bound for Hamburgh; but upon Examination prov'd to be design'd for Dunkirk: She had 30,000 Dollars on board for the Merchants of that Place, and 20,000 consign'd to the Merchants of London. The Prize is valued at 30,000 l. Sterling.

CHARLES TOWN, Sept. 24.

On Saturday last died much lamented, Mr. John Gwynn, of this Town Merchant, and last Night he was decently interred.

Yesterday Morning sail'd on a Cruize, his Majesty's Ship the Tartar commanded by Capt Ward. And,

The same Day sail'd for England, his Majesty's Snow the Spy, commanded by Capt. William Newnham; upon a Survey by the proper Officers she being adjudged unfit for further Service. During Capt. Newnham's Stay here, he has given uncommon Satisfaction; as have also all the other Commanders of his Majesty's Ships at present on this Station.

From the London Gazette, May 1.

Whitehall, May 1. This Day arrived a Messenger from His Majesty's Minister at Turin, with Letters of the 26th past, N.S. containing an Account of what passed in the Attacks made on the 20th, by the French and Spaniards, upon the King of Sardinia's Intrenchments near Ville Franca, in one of which they were repulsed with the Loss of 6 or 7000 Men, (the Loss on the Side of the King of Sardinia being only of 1500) but in the other obliged the Piedmontese Troops to abandon their Posts, and to retire into Ville Franca, where they embarked to set sail for Oneglia. The Particulars of these Actions, as given by the Court of Turin, will be published To-morrow Noon in a Supplement to the present Gazette.
